Peach's Hair Tutorial

Part 3: the end!

Okay, now i went in with the bright orange color, and added tiny strokes to brighten up the hair shine. Then i went and used the almost white color to add tiny lines where i wanted the eye to focus. Use the lightest color sparingly or else it can make people's eyes burn from brightness.

Now i added extra details, this step is optional but it really helps make everything look better. I went in with all the colors on the gradient i made, and added little hair stands. Also i made more flyaways. I really like how they look. Just try not to overdo it or your hair might look too realistic, and it won't look good with the face. Now all this picture needs it additional coloring and some clean up and we are DONE!

Okay guys! WE ARE DONE! wow this was tiring to make! For additional detailing, i added pur white strands to her hair, just for emphasis. Then i colored the skin, eyes, and lips to finish up! I don't have a tutorial for that but maybe someday I will! Until then enjoy! This isn't finished but it will do. I hope everyone who read this found this tutorial very helpful. Feel free to ask any questions.

THE END :)
